About Agria

Established in 1958, Agria Hispania the manufacturer of Agrimac Forklifts began manufacturing basic agricultural machinery.

Agria has since developed into the full range of 4WD Rough Terrain Forklifts with advanced hydraulic system and soft tyres, specifically designed to work in difficult conditions.

Agria Hispania exports its full range of products to over a dozen countries across five continents.

Why Choose Agria?

With over 30 years of experience and knowledge of market conditions, Agria products have been designed to solve problems in industries where other machines may have fallen short.

Agria products are designed to work in a range of difficult environments where rough terrain may be present or limited access defeats other machinery.

In summary: European Built. Over 15 + Years of success in Australia's harsh environment. Tough, rugged and built to last.
